President's Message

I'm Baaack!!! Those of you that are regulars at the meetings and shows know that I have assumed the duties of President of the Guild again after the resignation of Peggy Hovermale. We wish Peggy the best in her life and wish her well. For those of you that only read the newsletter to see what the latest wacky photo I came up with will be disappointed for a while since I pretty well ran out of ideas with my last term as Prez. We'll give it some thought and see what we can think up next. In the mean time, I encourage everyone to continue creating beautiful art and enjoying themselves. Make sure you sign up for our July show and let us and the public check out your new stuff. If you are in the midst of an artists block then think about signing up for our workshops and trying out a new medium. What ever you do, keep being creative!

STAINED GLASS WORKSHOP

Saturday, June 25, 2016

10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Mt. Hope Community Center

104 Pushaw Station Road, Sunderland, MD 20689

Ray and Phyllis Noble have been involved with glass art for the past 10 years. It started with a stained glass class and has evolved to fused glass and jewelry. The workshop class on June 25th will be held at Mt. Hope Community Center and will cost $35/person. Each student is expected to complete a 6" X 6" stained glass piece from a selection of glass patterns that will be made available. The Tiffany style will be taught in which each piece of glass is wrapped in copper foil and the various pieces soldered together.

All glass and tools will be provided at no extra cost. The maximum number of students is 8. Everyone must wear protective eye gear and wear closed toe shoes. Since glass cuts, those taking anticoagulant drugs (aspirin, warfarin, etc) must use extreme caution. If you have a soldering iron or other glass tools, please feel free to bring them.

We look forward to this exciting workshop.

What have You Been Working On?

by Carol Wade

We see each other at meetings, but how much do we know about our CAG colleagues artwork? I think it serves a purpose to show what we all are working on in order to learn from each other. So, I asked via e-mail that everyone send me a photo of what they are working on now or have finished lately.

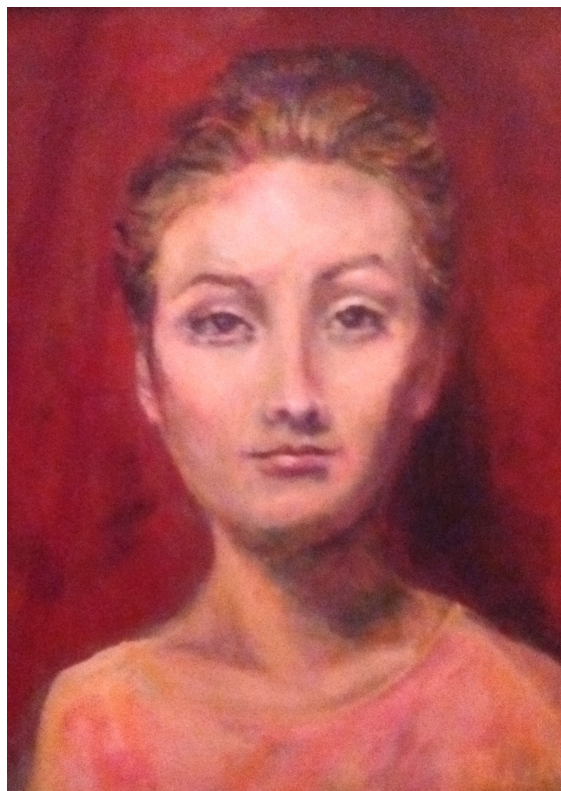

Here are a few images of some of our members recent work. Please send me a photo of your latest work, along with some information on your process, and the title. I will include it in the next issue. Send it to carolwadeart@gmail.com

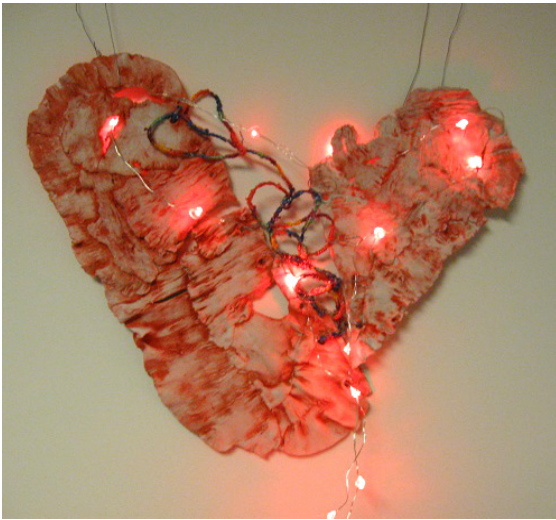

Mary Blumberg

This is an image taken from the Raleigh, N.C. state fair. I call it the Raleigh Peach Ralley. A lot more realistic than I am doing now, but still love it. Of course it is watercolor. Size is framed 16 x 20.

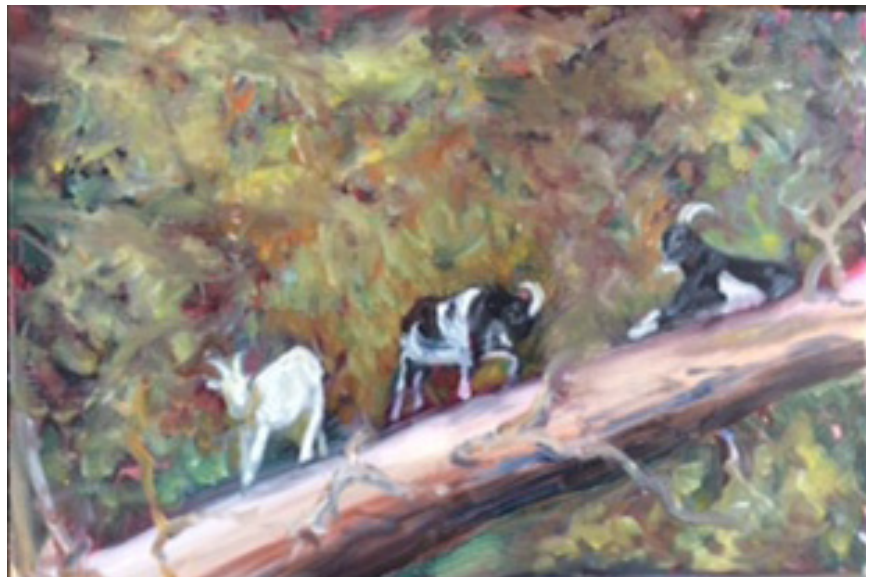

Darlene Brown

Deb Daniel

Heart with LED hearts, Porcelain,
We couldn't fit the whole heart in the kiln so we fired in 2 pieces. It is a "broken" heart which I mended with wire wrapped in yarn. I like it better this way,

Pam Callen

Ok. Haven't signed it yet, but here's my latest, an oil, inspired by the goats of Smith Island, which I saw while pulling into port there. It's title is "Smith Island Sunbathers."

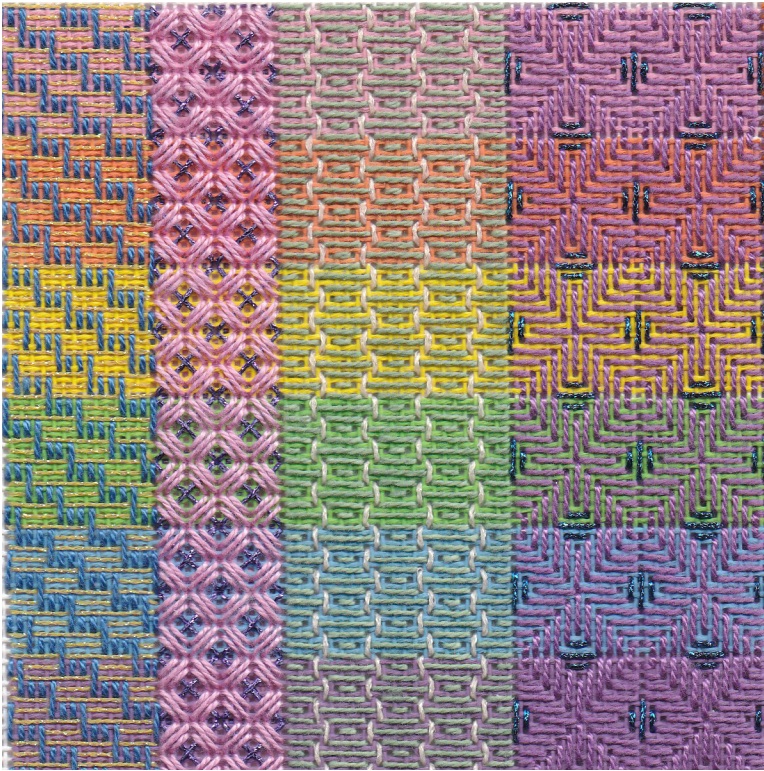

Priscilla Catterton

Low Country Marsh.
24x30 Acrylic on canvas.

Susan ?

Over a Rainbow and it is needlepoint over a rainbow painted needlepoint canvas. I was trying to show how the thread colors appear to change when stitched over different color background (the painted) canvas.

Carol Wade

"Raven" This is an acrylic painting on a wooden cutting board that I found in a thrift shop.

Suzanne Sheldon

"Red Barn on Solomon's Island", 24"x72", Acrylic on Canvas

Gerry Wood

The Bluebird on a branch in a circle, was inspired by my "circle paintings series". I've done many circle paintings and to welcome spring I did the bird on a branch in a series of 3 as the "Sign of Spring."
Watercolor, 16" x 20"

Pat Troiano

The Sun flowers are watercolor on canvas using a cold press ground applied to the canvas before painting.

"Burst of Energy", watercolor
